Bhishma Asare ("Proph") has completed a four week "Rap Therapy" programme in our school and we could not be happier with the outcomes. His high level of dedication to the children and his creative approaches to learning allowed the group to flourish. The final performance was inspiring and everyone in the school loved hearing the rap, with staff commenting on how impressed they were with the children's writing. Bhishma went over and above, spending time one to one with key pupils, talking with them and encouraging them.

Here's what the children had to say...

"Proph made it easier to share and communicate how I feel"

"I would love for Proph to come back. I did not like Rap Therapy, I loved it"

"I found Rap Therapy amazing but I was a little bit nervous sometimes. It was lovely, he is a really nice person and I hope I get to see him again"

"At first I was anxious to perform in front of a small group, but as the weeks passed all my fears went away and I managed to perform in front of the whole assembly"

"I felt good about Rap Therapy because all of my fear was in my body and then it drained out of me as I put all my emotions into the rap. Now I'm more comfortable and less worried about that kind of stuff, so BRING RAP THERAPY BACK!!!"
